The racing season in New York State closed man won the closing event, a six-furlong heat race, with Arab in two straight heats.

On both occasions Helen Rose was the better racer, but Bergen's superhuman efforts woo on the post with Arab, where any other jockey but Garrison would have failed. The heats were fought with so much determination that the spectators lost their usual calm sense in urging the horses and riders and then applauding Bergen.

The sport was inaugurated with a galloping victory for Stonell, the 4 to 5 favorite. Liselg, 4 to 1, then dumped the talent by winning the second race as easily as did Stonell the first. Extra, the 6 to 5 favorite, was unable to get a place. Rex should have won the third event, but Covington rode the colt all around his opponents, and was beaten a scant length by Aloha, 7 to 1. Rex beaten a scant length by Aloha, 7 to 1. Rex was running easy, while McCafferty was whipping Aloha vigorously.

Then came the race for the White Plains handicap. Helen Nichols, the even money favorite, won by a short head. Hugh Penny, 8 to 1, was winning, but McCafferty had declared to win with Helen and Doggett pulled Hugh up and let the filly win on the past Venne, when a view of the length of the second with a second control of the se

A GREAT TEAM.

The Pittsburg Association Football Kickers Enthuse Their Friends Very Much. The Pittsburg Association football team played their first practice game of the seaon vesterday afternoon at Exposition Park. the object being principally to find out the merits of the new players. The officials of the club were more than satisfied at the form displayed, not only by the new men, but also by the old players; in fact, they were delighted, and it is safe to assume that strong as the club was last year the new ele-ment introduced makes it fully 50 per cent

ment introduced makes it fully 50 per cent stronger.

Great curiosity was eyinced as to the playing of Crooks, one of fast season's Scottish Internationals; Worrall, of the Birmingham St. Georges, and Radeliffe, or the noted Notts Forest team. Each one of the players named fairly enthused the large number of spectators present by their brilliant kicking and excellent dogging tactics. Where the local team were weak last year they are exceptionally strong this, and it is doubtful whether there is a stronger team in the whole of the United States than the Pittsburgs.

whole of the United States than the Pitts-burgs.

The local team play their first match of the season next Saturday against the cele-brated Frank ords, of Philadelphia, who hold the championships of Eastern Penn-sylvania, New Jersey and New York State. With fine weather there will surely be a big crowd of spectators. It will be virtually a fight between English and Scotch, the Frankford team being composed principally of Scotchmen, while the local team consists of nine Englishmen and two from the land of cakes.

A. C., 0.

The second half was better played by the Grescents. They gained well at the start, but the visitors' tackling kept them from getting dangerously near their goal. F. Wingate hurt his knee and retired. In 9½ minutes Camp scored a touch down, shoff kicking the goal. Afterward Peralta ran from the center of the field and scored a touch down, and Captain Shoff kicked the goal. The final score was: University of Pennsylvania, 23; Crescents, 0.

VERY INTERESTING NEWS. Players and Their Salaries for the Local

Bali Club Next Season. It will be somewhat of a surprise to local baseball cranks and patrons of the game generally this morning to learn that almost all arrangements have been made for the local team next season. During the last few days Manager Buckenberger and the president of the club have been hard at work and as a result all the old players have been re-engaged except Farrell, Beckpected that the three first named will settle matters this week, probably to-morrow or Tuesday. There is no serious difficulty in the way and the club officials are certain that everything will be arranged satisfactorily. The three players named have not been directly approached yet, but they are In the first the field did not give Vickery willing to sign for next year at the higher salary to be paid by the local club. Baldwin Wants to Retire. Baldwin's case is different. He h raised no objection on the salary questio but he is thinking of permanently retirir from baseball and going into the real esta business with his father at Homestea This is no "bluff" on his part, but his rel tives are urging him to make the chan and he is inclined to take their advice. Until he has definitely made up his mind on the matter nothing will be done between himself and the local club. The club directors have resolved to reduce salaries to a very great extent and the players will be classified according to merit and uniform salaries will be paid in the respective classes. It is understood that this course is to be pursued by every club in the League and that the plan was agreed upon at the late League meeting. When it is at the late League meeting. stated that the salary list of the local club will be cut down about $20,000 it will be clearly understood that retrenchment is meant in its fuffest sense.

The Salaries to Be Paid. There will be 14 players on the list forwarded to Washington by the local club. Nine of these players will be paid $2,400 each next year, three $2,100 each, one $1,80 and another about $2,000. The last named is no other than Phil Knell, the left-handpitcher, who has been claimed by the local club for next season. He was in the "pool," and the local club took him out a few days

It is understood that the nine men who are to receive $2,400 each are Beckley, Farrell, Baldwin, Terry, Bierbauer, Miller Mack, Donovan and VanHaltren. The lastnamed, of course, signed some time ago for mext year at the rate of $2,600 for th He will get this amount. The three in the second class are understood to be Shugari, Smith and Ebret, and Jake Stenzel is to receive $1,800. The above salaries, will be seen, will keep the total down to about $30,000, and every club in the League intends to do the same. The Contracts for 12 Months. Each player's contract for next year extends over the entire 12 months and before and after the baseball season each player will receive $100 per month. He will get the balance during the playing season. This plan of contract gives the club the right to demand that each player shall conduct himself properly during the winter months and shall report next April in good con-

The cut in the local salaries is not as big as was anticipated. Some of the players have more or less objected, but the club flicials are certain that all will be well and that as soon as the players see reduction in salaries cannot be avoided the cut will be accepted without much kicking. Shugart's name is kept on the list for next season, but t is not likely that he will be retained. He will be exchanged for some good man, or, if a goo! short stop can be secured, he will be released. It is thought by the club officials that Knell will be a useful man in the box next year. His great fault during this year has been his wildness, and if he cau get clear of that he will be a splendid man. The Cleveland Club Deal. While all these arrangements for next year have leaked out, another very inter-esting piece of baseball news has come to the surface. It was made known to the local club officials when the Cleveland tear were in this city last week. The news in that Frank D. Robison is now sole proprie-tor of the Cleveland club. There is a story connected with this. When the Boston club announced that Cla President Robison insiste club signing him if only which would follow.

Hawley objected to this as strongly as Mr. Robison favored the idea. Finally Mr. Robison stated he was determined to have Clarkson or sell out, and that if Howe and Hawley did not buy him out he would buy them out. He did the latter and now owns the club and has John Clarkson.

DIDN'T GET A HIT.

Bumpus Jones Proves Quite a Terror to Our Sluggers at Cincinnati-They Failed to Get a Safe Hit and Got Only One Run-The Reds Got Seven and Won.

CINCINNATI, Oct.15 .- [Special.]-The mourn ers were few but boisterous, and before the last nail was driven into the DEFEAT coffin of old '92

those who had turned out to the last saw making noise enough to drive a mass He wore a nonde meeting of howling dervishes into the woods. There was a litthe box who was ing for the Reds. script sort of unitwisted himself

o into the living figure "7" before he let the ball drive. That deceptive motion was puzand added to that he had the speed of the whirtwind. There was no demonstration when the chunky mortal began his task, but as the game were on and not a semblance of a hit was charged against him, the crowd unbuckled and every put out was signal-ized by cheers.

It Was Mr. Bumpus Jones.

It Was Mr. Bumpus Jones.

The stranger was "Bampus" Jones, late of the "Convicts," the Two-eyed League champions. He was picked up during the Reds' raid at Wilmington.

Captain Comiskey sent Pittsburr to the bat, and the duet of the distinguised bassos, "Calliope" Miller and St. Jacob Beckley, was given with viror when both Donovan and Farrell were given bases on balls, the latter getting there a 'ter cutely fouling a hatful of strikes. Van Haltren played to advance the pair, and he succeeded, but Donovan was ambitious and his effort to reach home on the sacrifice failed, for Comiskey's throw to Vanghn cut him off. A double just as sharp wound up the first two Reds after Holliday's opening hit. The Reds then made their second. Smith, who had been sent along on balls, figured that Mack's fly was safe, and he ran toward second, only to be caught after McPhee, by a splendid run, had taken the ball just on the verge of foul territory. The Reds' first run was the result of a queer play. Baldwin had headed off Vaughn's easy grounder, but instead of fielding it he took possession of the path and then threw low to Beckley.

Baldwin's Very Bad Throw.

Baldwin's Very Bad Throw. The ball went over to right and "the tarmer" cantered to second. He reached third on Hoover's sacrifice and Comisky sent him home by a two-bagger to right. That run was immediately matched with

That run way immediately matched with two out. Donovan accepted his second gift and stole second. Jones tell down in fielding Farrell's tap and the ball rolled away from Comiskey, Donovan scoring by one of his famous sprints. Farrell was the last man to see first.

Nineteen Pittsburgers perished in order, and there were just two drives in the lot that looked like hits. Hoover put a stopper to a long drive from Smith's bat and Holliday squeezed a low line fly that Mac sent out. The Reds hit Baldwin hard. Farrell and Van Haltren tried hard for safe bunts in the ninth, but failed and when Smith shot the last ball over to Comiskey which let Pittsburg down without a hit, the crowd spread into the field with cheers for a newborn favorite. The Panhandle club, after winning the penuant in the Railroad League without the loss of a single game, defeated the Craftons, the champion club of the Suburban League yesterday, at Crafton, before a good crowd. The game was never in doubt, Barrett having the Crafton sluggers at his mercy at all times, striking out such heavy hitters as Foster with the greatest case. Watson's catching and throwing was superb; in fact, the Panhandles played the entire game without an error. Score:

BRADDOCK, Oct. 15.-The proposition to lease a piece of ground on Hawkins avenue, with a view to establishing a baseball club, was given a new impetus to-day by the an-nouncement that men interested in football would subscribe to such an arrangement. It is now humanly certain that a strong stock company will be formed looking to the foundation of a general athletic association.

It is so hard to get employment now and so hard to make money that I know others would like to know how they can make a little money as I have done. Tell your subscribers they can get all the jewelry, tableware, knives, forks and spoons they can piate, and make $25 a week. The plating ontit costs $5. I bought mine from H. F. Deino & Co., of Columbus, O. It plates gold, silver and nickel. I did $70 worth of plating the first day. The work is done so nicely that everybody seeing it wants work done. This machine is the greatest money maker I ever saw. Why should anyone be out of employment or out of money, when they can, by using my experience, always have money in the house and have a little to spend, too? The aver age time made by the winners of heats was from seven to eight seconds within that of the class in which they were entered. Then the sustained last time of all the heats in this race was only in keeping with the same characteristic in all the previous races at this meeting

The noted Sunol, a silken-coated beauty, was shown out of harness in front of the grand stand. The splendid display of the day was the mile exhibition of Bonner's $125,000 Arion, who once astonished the world as a 2-year-old. Marvin, the gray-bearded enthusiast, was at the rain. It was simply a show, not an effort to break the record. The time was made in 2-21½ easily. Marvin gave the same fleet-footed coursers mile warming up which was not timed. L. A. DAVIES, owner of Roy Wilkes, agreed to pace his stallion an exhibition mile at Mason City, Ia., for 30 per cent of the gate receipts. He received $1.20. That was rather rough on Brother Davies.

THE trotters and pacers are making a dead heat in reducing time. Namey Hanks and Hai Pointer stood even up to the Terre Haute meeting each with a record of 2:054. Then Namey and Mascot turned that eccentric track in 2:04.

The Brooklynites found it almost impossible to break down the barriers formed by Pennsylvania's interference. The latter also tackled beautifully and rarely fumbled.

Pennsylvania had the ball at the start and worked it gradually in the direction of Jamaica Bay. They first made ten yards in a close wedge. Then Knipe and Camp each added ten yards more. Sheldon made a gain of ten yards. Stockton kicked to Camp, who ran 20 yards. From the 25-yard line Knipe unexpectedly kicked a perfect goal. Camp subsequently went around the left end and secured a touch-down. Captain Shaff kicked the goal. Score of first hall: University of Pennsylvania, II: Crescent A. C., 9.

The second half was better played by the scoring one goal. Both teams made many attempts to score during the first half, but neither side could manage to get the ball under. About 15 minutes of the second half had passed when White scored a pretty goal for Wilkinsburg from a pass by Cunningham. From this on it looked as if the score was going to remain unaltered, but about five minutes before the game terminated, the Mansfield team sent in a grand shot which took effect, the game resulting, as above stated, in a draw of one goal each.

Considering the small amount of practice they have had, both teams gave a spleudid exhibition of football. White and Ellis did the best work for Wilkinsburg, while Fowler, Sherman, Cunningham and Jones were not far behind. Hirst, Webb, McKay, Chysman and Simmons all put up an excellent game for Mansfield. Mr. J. F. Horn refereed the game to the satisfaction of both teams. nanage to get the ball under. About 15

The Keystones, through the marshal and his officers extend an invitation to all wheelmen in the city and out, whether attached or mattached, to join with them in the parade. The Keystones will furnish free Columbus Dav badges to each rider; also builting for decorating the wheels, and will issue instructions regarding the place and manner of forming in a day or two. It is probable also that the Keystone hill climbing contest will be set for the afternoon of the same day, so that visiting cyclers can take in the parade, the contest and the football game, and thus make a full day of pleasure. The regular monthly meeting of the Keystones will take place to morrow evening, at which a number of new members will be elected and steps taken to make the parade a success.
